

Morning of the Earth Concert – Fact Sheet

Festival Overview

Join legends of the surf and local enthusiasts for one massive celebration of Australian culture.

The festival comprises 4 days of events embracing all things surfing with music concerts, markets, vintage car rallies, art exhibitions, book signings, dinners and the actual art of board riding.

Concert Overview

A worldwide icon of surfing, this seminal 70s surfing movie, Morning of the Earth, which was originally premiered at Manly Silver Screen Theatre in 1972, is now to be reborn as a live music and film event at the iconic North Head Sanctuary as a sunset concert on the green.

The Morning of the Earth Live Concert event will bring to life the full-length film played as the backdrop to performances of the full soundtrack by original writers and performers Brian Cadd and Tim Gaze (Tamam Shud). They are joined on stage by Mike Rudd from Spectrum, brilliant Aussie newcomers Lior and Old Man River and a group of outstanding musicians. Together they create an atmosphere of the 70's lived out in the sound and sight of today.

Name: Morning of the Earth Concert

Date & Time: Sunday 8 November 2009

Gates to the event will open at 4.30 pm

Entertainment commences at 6.00 pm

Concert Finish 10.30pm

Location: The event is a sunset concert on the green, to be held in the beautiful surrounds of North Head Sanctuary. View main oval: www.harbourtrust.gov.au/docs/map-nh.pdf

Inclusions: Food and Beverage will be available for purchase on the site - no BYO alcohol permitted.

Format: Set on a huge green field, amongst the old Royal School of Artillery at iconic North Head, bring your picnic blanket to soak up a beautiful summer sunset in this huge field, right on the edge of the ocean.

Parking: There will be no parking on the site, however easy access will be provided

All you have to do is get yourself to Manly and there will be FREE STA Bus transfers to and from the site at all Ferry, Bus, and Car parking hubs throughout Manly. Buses will continually rotate between the venue and pickup locations commencing at 4.00pm and immediately following the concert.

Ticket Price: $80.00 + Booking +GST. Concession Ticket for Children under 12 - $40.00 +Booking + GST

Enquires: Tickets on sale from Wednesday Sept 23rd from www.Ticketmaster.com.au or Phone 136100

www.manlyfestivalofsurfing.com.au
www.morningoftheearth.com